SAINT-RAPHAËL
JAGGED COASTLINE

THE SEA EMBRACES THE COAST AND UNVEILS ITS CURVED COVES, SECRET BAYS, BEACHES, CREEKS AND CALANQUES. A TREASURE TROVE OF SPARKLING JEWELS, BOASTING SAND AND RED ROCKS, AN INVITATION TO SWIM ON SUNNY DAYS OR TO STROLL, WANDER AND RELAX OFF-SEASON.

AGAY BAY

At the foot of the magnificent Rastel rock formation, Agay Bay unfurls onto a wide sandy beach where a myriad of summertime watersports activities are proposed: sailing, kayak, parasailing... enjoy incredible moments in this clear-water setting. The bay, sheltered to the West by the Cap Dramont and to the East by the Pointe de la Baumette, is the natural gateway to the Estérel Massif.

L'ILE D'OR

Ile d'Or is one of the sixty most beautiful sites in France. Privatized since 1897 (we cannot land there), it was renowned for its lavish receptions as the owner of the time proclaimed himself king of the island! It is also a reputed spot for dropping anchor, to easily discover the rich underwater world. Its crenellated square watch tower is built with Estérel redstone. Ile d'Or was immortalized by Hergé in "The Black Island".

PELAGOS SANCTUARY

Saint-Raphaël and its coast are part of the marine park that stretches all the way to Italy. The area contains exceptional biodiversity. Dolphins, whales and 8500 other animal species are now protected and observed in a maritime area that is unique in Europe.

SECRET INLETS

You have to make an effort to reach them. Follow all the steps from the Corniche d'Or, between Anthéor and Le Trayas, to get to these little gems of red rock in an unspoilt state, amid an enchanting setting with the colour of crystal-clear waters. Here, nature has pulled out all the stops. Who could resist the call of the translucent waters, to swim as far as the caves and rocks formed by the Estérel?

CONFIDENTIAL CREEKS

The coast is more confidential in the creeks of Boulouris or Le Dramont. Here children can look for shells, while little fish hidden in the rocks come to the surface all along the coastal path. This is a paradise for snorkelling or scuba-diving, especially on the outskirts of Le Dramont and the famous Île d'Or.

BATHING WATER QUALITY

Health control of bathing water is also implemented by the Regional Agency of Health (ARS) during the summer season. The results are displayed on the dashboards in front of the referred beaches at the emergency stations. It is possible to know the quality of bathing waters on www.baignades.sante.gouv.fr
