SAINT-RAPHAËL :

UNDERWATER ARCHAEOLOGY
AND PREHISTORY MUSEUM

Head off on a journey to discover of a wealth of objects recovered by archaeologist-divers.

Do you know what an amphora is?

A mortar?

All these treasures from the Roman era are showcased for you. Don't forget the Paleolithic men who tell you all about their life, their tools, etc. In the Romanesque church, you will head down to discover the crypts and the tombs of our ancestors. Finish with a bit of sport and climb the 129 steps which will take you to the top of the square tower! Watch out if you reach the top at the set time.

The museum proposes 2 activities all year round:

. Archéo Mômes Accompanied by a Museum guide kids become apprentice archaeologists. Experiment with our ancestors' building techniques, enjoy the thrills of mysterious digs and find hidden treasures.

Price: €2 booking required.

. Archéo-palmus This tablet game will immerse you in the world of underwater archaeologists.

Museum opening times: November to February from Tuesday afternoon to Saturday morning from 10am-12:30pm and from 2pm-5:30pm, closed on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday morning and Saturday afternoon. March to June and October, open from Tuesday afternoon to Saturday from 9am-12:30pm and from 2pm-5:30pm, closed on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday morning. July to September, open from Tuesday to Saturday from 10am-6pm, closed on Sunday and Monday. Free of charge. Tel: +33 (0)4 94 19 25 75
